

Terex Parts

Terex Part - Terex Forklifts stands by their goal to deliver a consistent and cost efficient product line. They take delight in making equipment that improves their customers' earnings. Through several divestures and acquisitions planned to expand the product offering, Terex has a short time ago expanded dramatically. They have enhanced their geographic coverage to enable them to deliver quality standards and value for their broad consumer base.

Terex has remained a competitive player in the material handling and industrialized equipment sector. They are working towards forming a franchise under the brand name Terex by incorporating all of their preceding brand names for many of the goods used in conjunction operations the brand Terex. Presently, Terex goods are principally marketed under the Terex name. A few of the following historic name brands and transitional names include: ATC, Amida, American Truck Company, American, Advance, Bartell, Benford, Bendini, Bid-Well, CMI, CMI-Cifali, CMI Johnson-Ross, Cedarapids, Canica, Comedil, Demag, ELJay, Franna, Ferman, Finlay, Fuchs, Genie, Hi-Ranger, Jaques, Load King, Morrison, O&K, Peiner, PPM, Powerscreen, Pegson, Reedrill, Schaeff, Simplicity, Standard Havens, Tatra, TerexLift, Telelect and Unit Rig.

Terex has had a constant growth cycle. In 1995 Terex acquired PPM Cranes, in 1996, then Terex divested Clark Material Handling. In 1997 Terex acquires Telelect and Simon-RO. BPI Handlers in Baraga, Michigan is also acquired this same year.

Terex quickly grew their mining and Crane operations with the acquisition of O&K mining, TerexLift, Gru Comedil, American Crane and Peiner. A Light Building business soon followed in 1999 when Terex acquired Amida, Bartell and Benford. They soon became a leader within the crushing and screening industry by buying Cedarapids, Powerscreen, BL Pegson, Re-Tech, and Finlay. Franna, Kooi and Princeton crane manufacturers were also added to Terex in 1999.

By purchasing Ferman, a dedicated maker of tractor loader backhoes, in the year 2000, Terex expanded into the Compact Equipment marketplace. Their Light Construction business continued to expand business with the acquisition of Coleman Engineering. This same year, Terex divested Moffett, Kooi and Princeton.

Terex beefed up its Roadbuilding division in 2001, operations with the acquisitions of Bid-well, Load King, CMI, Jaques and Atlas.

A few of the acquisitions that took place in 2002 helped allow Terex to grow into a leader in their respective categories. Advance Mixer helped boost Terex into the concrete mixing market, while Demag helped Terex Cranes become a leader in the crane market. Acquiring German suppliers Fuchs and Schaeff positioned Terex in a top position in the Compact Equipment class. Genie became a principal maker of Aerial Work Platforms. This busy year was completed operations with the acquisitions of EPAC and Pacific Utility, which provided company-owned circulation for Terex Utilities.

Tatra, a maker of heavy-duty forklifts designed for on and off-road industrial and military applications were acquired in 2003. Buying Combatel and Commercial Body the same year enabled Terex to continue to expand its company-owned Terex Utilities supply.

In 2004, Terex acquired Reedrill, a manufacturer of surface drilling technologies for application within the construction, utility and mining markets. Noble CE, which was referred to as Terex Mexico was also purchased this year. They produce high capacity surface mining vehicles and also fabricate many parts for other Terex companies.
